

First Nations, Métis and Inuit Education Newsletter

Week of March 18, 2019

This newsletter is a roundup of information and community events outside of the board that supports cultural competency and learning.

Events

Land as our Teacher

Kortright and the York Region Nature Collaborative are hosting a family event. Land as our teacher: Establishing and maintaining relationships. Registration is through Eventbrite

Leading Disruption and Decolonizing Our Institutions

Leading Disruption and Decolonizing Our Institutions: Wanda Nanibush in conversation with Niigaanwewidam Sinclair

March 31, 2019

2 - 3:30 pm program

3:30 - 5 pm educator roundtable discussions

Art Gallery of Ontario

FREE event. More information on the event including registration can be found online

Trent University Pow Wow

Trent University Native Association has been hosting the traditional Powwow for over 35 years, which allows students, faculty, and community to come together in celebration of Indigenous culture, nationhood and unity.

Trent University, 1770 West Bank Drive, Peterborough, Ontario K9L 1Z7

Saturday March 23 starting at 12pm – Feast at 5pm. All Welcome.

Digging up the Medicines: Project Dissemination Workshop

This event will disseminate the findings from the research project titled: “Digging up the Medicines: Urban Métis womxn’s identity and experiences with health services in Toronto, Ontario”. This research project was nested in the Our Health Counts Toronto study, co-led by Seventh Generation Midwives Toronto and the Well Living House at St. Michael’s Hospital. Conversations will be had around Métis womxn’s recommendations to improve access to health and social services for the urban Métis community in Toronto.

FREE EVENT! Space is limited. March 23, 2019

RSVP to Renée at reneemonchalin@gmail.com or 437-228-6327 with dietary and/or accessibility requirements.

Indigenous Youth Gathering

Traditional Indigenous cultural teachings, activities and ceremonies.

All Indigenous youth and families welcome

March 25, April 15, May 13 and June 10

6-8pm

Drug/alcohol free event – Light snacks will be provided.

Newmarket Recreation Youth Centre & Sk8 Park, 56 Charles Street, Newmarket

RSVP to indigenouslyouthgathering@gmail.com