

Blackness in Canada Policy Networking (BCPN) Conference:
Critical Issues for Building Robust Community-Academic Alliances

February 4th and 5th, 2020
York University, New Student Centre - 15 Library Lane

AGENDA

Day 1 – Tuesday February 4, 2020

8:00 – 8:30	Registration, Light Breakfast, Networking
-------------	---

Welcome

8:30 – 8:45	Shelia Cote-Meek , PhD, Vice-President of Equity, People a& Culture, York University
-------------	--

Opening Remarks

8:45 – 9:00	Louise Sirisko, Director, York Region District School Board
-------------	---

PART I

Black Identity in a Canadian Context –

Black Canadian Studies: Links between Black Activist Scholarship and Community Development

9:00 – 9:30	Race Relations in Canada: A Survey of Public Opinion and Experiences and other initiatives of the CRRF Lilian Ma , PhD, Executive Director, Canadian Race Relations Foundation
9:30 – 10:00	Unintended Activist: Fred Christie and the story of Anti-Black Racism at the Inception of the Modern Human Rights Journey in Canada Patrick Case , Assistant Deputy Minister, Educational Equity Secretariat, Ministry of Education
10:00 – 10:35	A quarter of Black Canada is under 15 year: What does this mean for the welfare of the community? Carl James , PhD, Professor, Jean Augustine Chair in Education, Community & Diaspora, York University

Break 10:35 am – 10:45 am

The Black Canadian Population as a National Ethno-Racial Identity

10:45 – 11:10	Breaking down Barriers by Racialized Communities through Building Community Research and Knowledge Capacity Avvy Go and Michael Kerr , Colour of Poverty - Colour of Change
11:10 – 11:35	Analysis of the complicated experience of African Canadians in the changing Canadian economy using some key factors: Participation rates, unemployment, sectoral distribution and income attainment Grace Edward-Galabuzi , PhD, Associate Professor, Department of Politics and Public Administration, Ryerson University

Blackness in Canada Policy Networking (BCPN) Conference:
Critical Issues for Building Robust Community-Academic Alliances

11:35 – 12:00	Black consciousness heteronormativity and the sexual politics of Black leadership in Toronto: A commentary Wesley Crichlow , PhD, Professor and Associate Dean, Ontario Tech University
---------------	--

Lunch and Networking 12:00 – 1:15

PART II

Systemic and Social Factors Shaping the Black Canadian Experience

1:15 – 1:35	Colour-Blind: A Critical Discussion on the Role of Biased Data Collection in Perpetuating Health Disparities Among Black Ontarians Tiyahna Ridley-Padmore , MA Candidate, Master of Public Policy Administration & Law (MPPAL), York University
1:35 – 2:00	Unpacking Symbolic Anti-Racism in Education Policy Rhonda C. George , PhD, Candidate, Department of Education, York University
2:00 – 2:20	Sub-Saharan Francophone Immigrant Women in the Labour Market in the Greater Toronto Area Gertrude Mianda , PhD, Associate Professor, Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies, Glendon Program, York University

Break 2:20 – 2:35

2:35 – 3:00	Leading While Black! Reflections on Navigating and Negotiating Educational Leadership from Black Female School and System Leaders Camille Logan , PhD, Superintendent of Education, York Region District School Board Kimberley Tavares PhD, Education Officer, Equity and Literacy Lead for the Innovation, Design and Implementation Team, Ministry of Education
3:00 – 3:25	Methodological Approaches to Conducting Intimate Partner Violence Research with Black Women Patrina Duhaney , PhD, Assistant Professor, University of Calgary
3:25 – 4:00	End of Day Wrap-Up – Key points and highlights and framework for discussion tomorrow Lorne Foster , PhD, Professor, Public Policy and Equity Studies & Director, Institute for Social Research (ISR) York University

Keynote Address

4:00 – 6:00	Ms. Zanane Akande
-------------	--------------------------

Blackness in Canada Policy Networking (BCPN) Conference: Critical Issues for Building Robust Community-Academic Alliances

AGENDA

Day 2 – Wednesday February 5, 2020

Morning
8:30 – 9:00	Breakfast and Networking

PART III

Determining the Most Promising Strategies, Techniques and Approaches to Alleviate Anti-Black Racism
9:00 – 9:30	Public policy, Black intelligentsia and the Pedagogy of Resistance: Developing a self-reflexive Black Commons in the neo-liberal context Tamari Kitossa , PhD, Associate Professor, Department of Sociology, Brock University
9:30 – 10:00	Human Rights Approaches to Race and Racism and Recent Work of the OHRC Shaheen Azmi , PhD., Director of Policy Education Monitoring and Outreach, Ontario Human Rights Commission

BREAK and Networking 10:00 – 10:45

10:45 – 11:15	Transformational Social Change: How Can Black and Minority Communities Strengthen the Community's Institutions & Mobilize a Broad Cross -Section of Community in Change Efforts Leith Hamilton , MSW, consultant
11:15 – 11:45	Envisioning Institutional Governance Foundations for a Canadian Black Policy Network Kimberly Nesbet , Master of Public Policy
11:45 – 12:30	Panel Discussion – Building a Public Policy network(s) and knowledge sharing partnership(s) aimed at influencing policy development, implementation and outcomes Moderator: Anthony Anirud , Human Rights Commissioner, YRDSB Panel Members: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Cecil Roach, Coordinating Superintendent of Education (Indigenous Education and Equity), YRDSB ○ Jane Ngobia, PhD. VP of Inclusive Communities, Sheridan College ○ Remi Warner, PhD. Senior Manager of Human Rights, TDSB ○ Karen Mock, PhD. President of JSpace Canada