Continuing Education Courses

Continuing Education

We believe in lifelong learning that continues beyond the regular school day, beyond school age, and beyond the regular classroom. A number of programs are offered for students and community members to support this belief.

Civics and Careers: Pick - S1 and S2

Make sure to pick separate sessions.

The screenshot shows a list of courses on the left side of a web interface. A modal window is open over the 'Career Studies (S1)' course. The modal title is 'Career Studies (S1)' and it contains the following information:

- Course ID: GLC205
- Category: Guidance and Career Education
- Access: Open
- Description: This course teaches students how to develop and achieve personal goals for future learning, work, and community involvement. Students will assess their interests, skills, and characteristics and investigate current economic and workplace trends, work opportunities, and ways to search for work. The course explores postsecondary learning and career options, prepares students for managing work and life transitions, and helps students focus on their goals through the development of a career plan.
- Buttons: 'Submit Course' (top right), 'Submit Course' (bottom right), and a large blue 'Submit Course' button at the bottom of the modal.

The 'Career Studies (S1)' text in the modal is circled in red.

The screenshot shows a list of courses on the right side of a web interface. A modal window is open over the 'Civics and Citizenship (S2)' course. The modal title is 'Civics and Citizenship (S2)' and it contains the following information:

- Course ID: CHV206
- Category: Canadian and World Studies
- Access: Open
- Description: This course explores rights and responsibilities associated with being an active citizen in a democratic society. Students will explore issues of civic importance such as healthy schools, community planning, environmental responsibility, and the influence of social media, while developing their understanding of the role of civic engagement and of political processes in the local, national, and/or global community. Students will apply the concepts of political thinking and the political inquiry process to investigate, and express informed opinions about, a range of political issues and developments that are both of significance in today's world and of personal interest to them.

The 'Civics and Citizenship (S2)' text in the modal is circled in red.
