Exploring Mental Health Together: Resources for parents and caregivers

School Mental Health Ontario has prepared this information, which includes a set of resources for parents and caregivers.

Vimy Ridge Day - April 9

In 2003, the Government of Canada declared 9 April to be "Vimy Ridge Day", to honour and remember the Battle of Vimy Ridge which took place during the First World War at Vimy Ridge, France, in 1917. The initiative to create the day of commemoration was spearheaded by Robert Manuel, a Korean War veteran. The annual holiday was created through passage of Bill C-227, introduced by Brent St. Denis, the Member of Parliament for Algoma-Manitoulin.

Eid-ul-Fitr - April 9

Eid-ul-Fitr falls on the first day of Shawwal, the 10th month of the Muslim calendar, and marks the end of the month of Ramadan. On this day, Muslims who had been observing Ramadan break the fast and celebrate its conclusion. Please note that this date may change subject to the sighting of the moon.

The day traditionally begins early with a prayer ceremony at the community mosque. Since this is a day to celebrate the renewal of one's commitment to Islam, people may wear new clothes as a symbol of fresh beginnings. Families and friends typically visit one another and exchange good wishes, hugs and handshakes, and homes are often decorated to reflect the festive atmosphere of this special day.

On this festive and meaningful occasion for many members of the Islamic community, we wish students, parents and staff a happy celebration.

International Day of Pink - April 12

April 12 is the International Day of Pink. The International Day of Pink is a day when communities across Canada and across the world unite to celebrate diversity and raise awareness about the need to stop homophobia, transphobia, discrimination and all forms of bullying. On this annual day in April, individuals wear pink to show respect for diversity and to demonstrate support for learning and working environments which are safe and inclusive of people from all different backgrounds. The staff and students at Beynon Fields are encouraged to wear pink on this day.

Vaisakhi - April 14

Vaisakhi, the Sikh New Year, is celebrated in April every year. Vaisakhi is also celebrated in some other parts of India.

For Sikhs, Vaisakhi celebrates the birth of the Panth Khalsa order (the Order of the Pure Ones) established by Guru Gobind Singh. It is at this time that Guru Gobind Singh gave the Khalsa order the five distinct symbols of purity and courage which would make Sikhs identifiable: the Kesh (unshorn hair); Kangha (the wooden comb); Karra (the iron bracelet); Kirpan (the sword) and Kachera (underclothing).

Some of the ways that this day is traditionally honoured include visiting a place of worship (Gurdwaras), participating in a mela (fair), indulging in mithai (sweets), fruits and lassi (a sweet yogurt drink).

We extend good wishes to all students, staff and members of the Sikh and Indian communities who will be celebrating Vaisakhi.

Ridván - April 20

The Festival of Ridván (pronounced Riz-wan) commemorates the anniversary of the declaration of Bahá'u'lláh of His prophetic mission to his followers in 1863, proclaiming His identity as the promised Manifestation of God. Ridván is celebrated over the twelve day period that Bahá'u'lláh spent in the Najibiyyih Garden just outside of Baghdad and across the Tigris River. Bahá'u'lláh later referred to it as "The Garden of Ridván". Ridván can be translated as "Paradise".

The dates for the Festival of Ridván are determined from the date of another Bahá'í Holy Day – Naw Rúz (held on the Equinox), and will therefore vary from year to year between April 20 – 22. The exact nature and details of Bahá'u'lláh's declaration are unknown, however on three of the twelve days, Bahá'ís may suspend work on the First, Ninth, and/or the Twelfth Day of Ridván in order to participate in community celebrations and do good works. These three days represent, in order, the day of Bahá'u'lláh's declaration, when His family joined Him in the Najibiyyih Garden, and when He and His family left the Garden and started the journey for Constantinople, the place of His exile.

This is a sacred and celebratory time, and Bahá'ís and their friends come together to remember the life and teachings of Bahá'u'lláh and find ways to serve their community. Ritual celebrations are discouraged. There are no specific foods, or activities associated with any of the Bahá'í Holy Days; however, artistic cultural expressions are encouraged.

During the twelve-day period, three important administrative functions occur. In the Bahá'í Faith, there are no clergy; therefore, Assemblies are elected to administer the affairs of the community. On the First Day of Ridván, all Local Spiritual Assemblies across the world are elected from among the adult membership. During these twelve Days, National Spiritual Assemblies are also elected annually, and every five years the Universal House of Justice is elected.

We extend good wishes to all students, staff and members of the Baha'i community who will be celebrating Ridvan.

Passover / Pesach - April 22-April 30

Passover, also known as Pesach, is the eight-day Jewish Festival of Unleavened Bread (Matzah) that commemorates the emancipation of the Israelites from slavery in ancient Egypt.

Passover is observed by avoiding leaven and highlighted by the Seder meals that include four cups of wine, eating matzah and bitter herbs, and retelling the story of the Exodus. Passover begins at sundown on the first day and ends at nightfall on the eighth day.

Passover is celebrated by many Jews across all denominations because it is so essentially and uniquely a family holiday. The Seder (SAY-der) is often attended by complete extended families. The Seder is a feast that includes reading, drinking wine, telling stories, eating special foods, singing, and other Passover traditions. As per Biblical command, it is held after nightfall on the first night of Passover (and the second night if you live outside of Israel), the anniversary of the Jewish nation's miraculous exodus from Egyptian slavery more than 3,000 years ago.

As charity and community are important aspects of Judaism, it is common for families to invite those who do not have their own seders to join them. During seder meals, bitter herbs and various symbolic foods are eaten that symbolize the suffering endured by the Israelites, as well as the freedom bestowed upon them. The Haggadah is read, a retelling of the exodus.

Passover is observed by avoiding leaven and eating matzah to remind of the unleavened bread eaten by the Israelites when leaving Egypt.

We extend good wishes to all students, staff and members of the Jewish community who will be celebrating Passover.

Earth Day - April 22

Earth Month encompasses the international celebration of Earth Day on April 22, the most celebrated environmental event worldwide. Initiated in 1970, this event has been considered the birth of the environmental movement. Each year, more than six million Canadians join 500 million people all over the world to address local environmental issues.

Sikh Heritage Month

April is Sikh Heritage Month. Sikh Canadians have lived in Ontario since the middle of the twentieth century. They represent a growing and dynamic population. Sikh Canadians have made significant contributions to the growth and prosperity of Ontario.

April is an important month for the Sikh community. In this month, Sikh Canadians celebrate Vaisakhi, which marks the creation of the Khalsa and the Sikh articles of faith. Sikh Canadians widely celebrate Vaisakhi, also known as Khalsa Day, across Ontario.

By proclaiming the month of April as Sikh Heritage Month, the Province of Ontario recognizes the important contributions that Sikh Canadians have made to Ontario's social, economic, political and cultural fabric. Sikh Heritage Month is an opportunity to remember, celebrate and educate future generations about Sikh Canadians and the important role that they have played and continue to play in communities across Ontario.
