	Just a reminder for all members (as well as volunteers) to submit your cheque requests if you have paid in advance on behalf of school council. I understand there would be some expenses coming in related to the year end festival. As we will have our festival later in June this year, please have your cheque request filled out and preferably submitted to the office by Monday June 25 so you can be reimbursed before end of this school year. For any reason you cannot submit your receipts along with the cheque request by June 25, please reach out to me directly.
