

GETTING STARTED WITH MY PATHWAY PLANNER

INDIVIDUAL PATHWAYS PLANNING SESSION GOALS

- Learn how to access My Pathway Planner
- Discover more about myself by completing two “Who Am I” surveys
- Explore careers suggested to me
- Set goals and monitor my progress towards achieving them
- Document and reflect on this learning in “My Pathway Plan” portfolio

To open “My Pathway Planner”, go to the public page of the YRDSB site and click on the icon. Alternatively you can type the following URL in your web browser:
<https://mypathwayplanner.yrdsb.ca>

By the end of November, you will be able to access this log-in page on your school’s website.

Once the single sign-on page has opened, log in using your student number and YRDSB password. Be sure to select EDU as the domain. After successfully logging in, you will be redirected to your Individual Pathway Planner (IPP).

A screenshot of the My Pathway Planner login page. The page has a header "my PATHWAY planner" and a sub-header "Please login below to access MyPathwayPlanner". Below this, there is a login form with the following fields: "Domain:" with a dropdown menu showing "EDU (Students and Teachers)", "User name:" with a text input field, and "Password:" with a text input field. There are red asterisks next to the User name and Password fields. A "Login" button is located at the bottom right of the form.

When you first log in to “My Pathway Planner”, you will see the “Welcome to myBlueprint” screen.

Read the four windows that appear explaining the different areas of the platform. Be sure to click “Next” on each and then “Got it!” on the last one so that they do not reappear the next time you log in.

The menu items are: 'Who Am I' (highlighted with a red box and an upward-pointing red arrow), 'Primary', 'Secondary', 'Work', and 'Guides'. The main content area is titled 'Who Am I' and has two tabs: 'Surveys' (active) and 'Match Results'. Under the 'Surveys' tab, there are two survey cards. The first card is titled 'Learning Styles' and contains the text: 'How do you use your brain? Do you remember what you read? Are you good at remembering names? Each of us has a different learning style. What's yours?'. Below this text is a blue 'Start Survey' button (highlighted with a red box and a right-pointing red arrow). The second card is titled 'Personality' and contains the text: 'You are a unique individual; but we all have personality traits that are similar to others. Understand your personality to find opportunities that fit your type well.' Below this text is another blue 'Start Survey' button. On the right side of the interface is a 'Progress' section with a list of items: 'Learning Styles' (checked), 'Personality' (checked), 'Interests' (checked), 'Knowledge' (locked), 'Motivations' (locked), and 'Compatibility' (0).

The Learning Styles survey consists of 20 questions.

For each question prompt, you will need to rank three provided options based on the statement above.

Once finished ranking the options, click “Next Question”.

The screenshot shows a web interface for a 'Learning Styles' survey. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a 'Back to Surveys' link, the title 'Learning Styles', and a progress indicator 'Question 1/20'. The main content area displays a prompt: 'Rank the importance of these statements to you from high to low'. Below this is a blue statement: 'When you focus on reading a single word it usually:'. A red arrow points from this statement to a list of three options, each preceded by a drag handle icon (a square with a cross). The options are: 'Creates an image related to that word in your mind', 'Causes you to hear or spell the word out silently', and 'Creates a memory or sensation related to that word'. This list of options is enclosed in a red rectangular box. To the right of the options is a vertical stack of three dashed boxes for ranking. The first box is labeled 'Drag or click your first favourite statement', the second 'Drag or click your second favourite statement', and the third 'Drag or click your third favourite statement'. At the bottom right of the interface is a blue button labeled 'Next Question', which is also enclosed in a red rectangular box. A red arrow points from the 'Next Question' button back to the text on the left.

The Artisan

The Artisan pays incredible attention to detail and they value accuracy and tradition. They bring artistry and creative flair to tried and true methods, processes, reports and products. They will use their own distinct approach to whatever they're working on and continue to refine that approach in an effort to achieve perfection. Artisans work independently and have a knack for organization and analysis. When nothing but the highest quality will do, look for an Artisan.

You will be adding two goals to this section.

Click “Add Goal” to start.

First, create a “Personal” goal by selecting it from this list. Write your goal in the space provided.

Click “Need Ideas?” for some examples to help get started.

Set a timeline for achieving this goal, then click “Add Goal”.

The screenshot shows the 'Add Goal' form with several red annotations and arrows indicating the steps:

- A red box highlights the 'New Goal' tab, with an arrow pointing to it from the first instruction.
- A red box highlights the question 'What type of goal would you like to add?' and the category buttons below it. The 'Personal' button is highlighted in blue. An arrow points from the first instruction to this section.
- A red box highlights the 'What is your goal?' section, including the prompt 'Enter a goal that is important to you and that you can measure your success towards achieving' and the text input field 'I want to accomplish...'. An arrow points from the second instruction to this section.
- A red box highlights the 'Add Goal' button at the bottom right. An arrow points from the third instruction to this button.

The form includes the following elements:

- Close button (X)
- Page title: Add Goal
- Tabs: New Goal (selected), Need Ideas?
- Question: What type of goal would you like to add?
- Category buttons: Education, Personal (selected), Academic, Physical, Career, Extra-Curricular, Learning Skills, Financial, Family, Community, Competencies, Other
- Section: What is your goal?
Enter a goal that is important to you and that you can measure your success towards achieving
Input field: I want to accomplish...
- Section: When would you like to achieve your goal?
Select a timeframe that gives you enough time to achieve your goal
Timeline buttons: 0-6 Months, 6-12 Months, 1-2 Years, 2-5 Years, 5+ Years
- Section: Add Tasks?
Add another task?
- Submit button: Add Goal

You can add tasks to help work towards achieving your goals by clicking the button. You can edit or mark your goal as complete by clicking on the three-dot button.

To finish, repeat the steps to establish an “Academic” goal.

The screenshot shows a 'Student Account' dashboard. At the top, there's a header with a menu icon, 'Gr. 8' dropdown, '250 points' badge, and user name 'Michael Minchella'.
