Dear Parents, Guardians, and Students,

Dear Hartman Community,

As we find ourselves approaching the end of another bustling week at Hartman, it's a pleasure to share with you the latest happenings within our vibrant school community. From academic updates to heartfelt moments of reflection, here's a recap of the week that was:

Progress Reports and Academic Achievements

Our dedicated teachers have been hard at work diligently preparing progress reports. These reports provide valuable insights into the academic progress of our students, showcasing the commitment and effort they've put into their studies. We encourage parents and guardians to engage in conversations with their children about their achievements and areas for growth. We look forward to seeing you on the evening of November 16 or morning of November 17. Edsby will be open until November 14, 2023 for you to schedule a time to meet with your child's teacher.

A Moment of Resilience: The Thursday Blackout

This week, Hartman faced an unexpected challenge when a system blackout disrupted our usual routines. In the face of adversity, both students and teachers showcased incredible resilience as they pivoted seamlessly to a day without internet access. It's a testament to the adaptability and determination that characterizes our school community.

Remembrance Day: Honouring Sacrifice and Diversity

On Friday, we gathered as a community to mark Remembrance Day, a solemn occasion to pay tribute to the brave soldiers who made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom. It's crucial to remember the contributions made by individuals from diverse backgrounds all around the world, including Indigenous, South Asian, Black, and Asian communities, during both World War I and World War II.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to the organizing committee—Mr. Jackson, Mrs. Vincent, Mr. Wallace and Mr. Edwards—for their meticulous planning and execution of the Remembrance Day events. Your dedication ensured a meaningful and respectful commemoration of this important day.

Hartman Heroes: Celebrating Kindness

In the spirit of recognizing the positive qualities that make our school community truly special, our student council has launched the Hartman Heroes initiative. This initiative aims to shine a spotlight on random acts of kindness within the school. We encourage everyone to take part and celebrate the little moments of goodness that make Hartman a nurturing and supportive environment.

As we conclude this week, let's carry forward the lessons of resilience, reflection, and kindness into the days ahead. Together, we make Hartman a place where both academic excellence and compassionate values thrive.

Scholastic Book Fair

It's here! Our school's Scholastic Book Fair has begun! Students will be able to browse and shop at our school on Monday, November 13th – Thursday, November 16th . Families are welcome to shop on: Thursday, November 16th from 3:30pm - 8:00pm Friday, November 17th from 9:30am - 11:30am All purchases benefit our school and earn rewards that can be redeemed for books and Education Resources for our school's classrooms and library. Thank you for participating in our Scholastic Book Fair! Happy Reading!

Diwali

Diwali, the festival of lights, is one of the most joyous and vibrant celebrations that take place in India and all over the world. It is a time when families come together to celebrate the victory of light over darkness, good over evil. Diwali signifies a fresh start and the triumph of positivity in our lives. May the light of Diwali fill your life with joy, love and prosperity. To all our community members celebrating Diwali this Sunday we wish this Diwali fills your home with joy and happiness.

Warm regards,

Saira Salman
