School Council Report	Briefly discussed the Parent Reaching Out presentations that had been funded by Huron Heights and a number of schools. This year they were all in person. There was a challenge getting significant turnout but the presentations were informative and relevant. We talked about the drumming and meditation event led by Glenn Marais and that was well attended and very popular. Tim shared about the online PEAC Regional Symposium "Parent Voices Matter" May 3rd he attended and Erik attended as well. There was a great opening talk given by Dr. Jacqui Getfield titled 'School Councils after COVID-19: Authentic Voices & New Partnerships' that challenged School Councils to find ways to get a diverse and representative membership on school councils. There were also online workshops afterwards and	Tim Greenwood

	Tim noted there were technical difficulties with the one he took part in. “
OTHER BUSINESS	This was the last meeting of the year and it was noted that it will be Tim Greenwood’s last on School Council as his daughter is graduating. However there were a number of parents present have children continuing next year.
