

ACT INFORMATION SHEET

What is the ACT and why should I write it?

The ACT is a widely used entrance exam for undergraduate study in the U.S. and is increasingly being used by universities around the world. It helps students show universities what they know and how they can apply it. Plus it tests the same knowledge and skills taught in school such as reading, writing, math and science.

Why should I write the ACT prior to my Grade 12 year?

Writing the test prior to your Grade 12 year will allow you to become accustomed to the test and its requirements. Students are encouraged to write the test several times in order to gain practice. Colleges and universities understand that students may write the test more than once.

What does it cost to take the ACT?

As an “international student”, you must pay the regular $181.50 - $206.50 US test fee. This fee is paid when you register for the test.

When can I write the test? Note the deadlines!***

ACT 2023-2024
Test Dates	Registration Deadlines		Please make sure to check the website and / or call, to find out when results will be made available and when they will be mailed.
	Regular	+ Late Fee
October 27 or 28	September 29	October 13
December 1 or 2	November 3	November 17
February 23 or 24	January 26	February 9
April 12 or 13	March 15	March 29
June 7 or 8	May 10	May 24
July 12 or 13	June 14	June 28

What is the School Code Number?

8 2 6 5 0 3

How do I register to write the test?

Register on line at: <https://my.act.org/account/signin?location=https://my.act.org>

Where can I write the test? (not all sites are used for all test dates)

Canada Systems Inc., Etobicoke
People Analytics, Toronto
Precise Solutions, Toronto
Queen's Collegiate, Toronto
Wales College, Toronto
Network Expert Inc., Mississauga

Where can I get additional information?

You can get additional information about the ACT from

- <https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act-non-us.html>; or
- (319) 337-1270