RAISING RESPONSIBLE CHILDREN

A COLLABORATIVE APPROACH TO RAISING KIDS WHO CAN

Today's children seem to lack the interest or enthusiasm for independence that other generations enjoyed. Why do we find it so hard to get our children to be punctual, do their chores and manage their school work without our constant nagging and supervision? In this talk, Alyson will discuss:

- The importance of giving children autonomy
- The factors that interfere with transferring responsibility to children
- The correct strategies to employ and how to keep kids accountable
