The Council may choose to remove from the Council any members who does not participate in one or more “events” each school year.

7.8: Vacancies

A vacancy in membership of Council does not prevent the Council from exercising its authority.

The Council should fill positions that become vacant due to resignation or removal as soon as possible by:

- Offering the person with the next largest number of votes who was not elected the opportunity to accept the position.
- notifying all parents of the vacancies and requesting written applications by interested volunteers
- calling an election if there are more applications than positions, or
- Appointing a parent member when no more candidates are available.

The Council will fill vacancies only until May of the current school year, after which time Council will fill the vacant positions through the annual October election.

Article 8: The Executive

8.1: Executive

The Executive is elected from the newly elected parent members of the Council and shall consist of:

- 1 Chair or 2 Co-Chairs
- Secretary
- Treasurer

8.2: Chair or Co-Chairs

An employee of the Board cannot be chair or co-chair.

The chair or co-chairs shall

- call and chair Council meetings
- prepare an agenda for meetings, in consultation with other Council members and the principal
- ensure that the minutes of the meetings are recorded and maintained
- coordinate the activities of the Council as well as the subcommittees of the Council
- communicate with the principal
- sign any contracts, this constitution and other documents which the Council has authorized
- liaise with the Trustees and Board as required
- ensure that the Council constitution is reviewed each year
- will submit an annual report to YRDSB at the end of every school year

8.3: Secretary

The Secretary shall

- record attendance and the minutes of the meetings of the Council
- distribute the minutes of the meetings by e-mail to all Council members within 14 days of the meeting

8.4: Treasurer

The treasurer shall

- prepare a Treasurer's Report and distribute copies to attendees at Council meetings
- prepare a budget outlining expenses for the year

Article 9: Subcommittees

9.1: Establishment

Ongoing subcommittees of the Park Avenue Public School Council are

- fundraising
- events
- educational

As the need arises, Council may form more committees to deal with specific issues that may arise.

9.2: Purpose

The purpose of the subcommittee is to

- conduct the detailed, in-depth work that is not possible during council meetings
- make recommendations to the Council and
- keep the Council informed of issues and developments in its particular area.

9.3: Membership

Subcommittees will draw their membership from the members of the school community. Each subcommittee must contain at least one parent member of Council and may include parents who are not members of the Council. A list of subcommittee members is to be provided to the Council Chair.

9.4: Chair

Each subcommittee will appoint its own chair. The subcommittee chair does not have to be a member of the Council.

9.5: Meetings

Subcommittees will meet regularly between Council meetings to ensure they conduct their business in a timely manner.

9.6: Updates and Recommendations

All subcommittee chairs are required to provide updates at the Council meeting when indicated on the agenda. If they cannot attend the Council meeting, they will submit a written update.

All subcommittees shall report to the Council to obtain final approval of the subcommittee's recommendations and budget.

Article 10: meetings

10.1: Meeting Dates

The Council will publicize all meeting dates for the families of the school. It is recognized that the meeting date may change from time to time. The Council will publicize any such changes to the families of the school. When possible, meetings that must be re-scheduled for weather will move to an online platform.

By mandate the Council must meet at least six times a year. Further monthly or sub-committee meetings may occur as the need arises.

10.2: Attendance

Members of the Council must either send regrets to the chair directly or via another Council member if they are unable to make the Council meeting.

10.3: Quorum

A meeting will have a quorum if

- the majority of Council members are present and
- the majority of those present are parents

The Council can still meet if there is no quorum but will defer all voting.

10.4: Decision-making

The preferred method to resolve issues on Council is through consensus. Consensus is a collective opinion or general agreement by all members present. Comments and opinions from all meeting attendees are welcome, regardless of membership status.

In cases where a decision cannot be reached through consensus, the chair may decide to either

- call for a vote by way of a show of hands or a ballot by those present in which case a 51% majority will carry the vote
- defer the issue to the next meeting, or

- Defer the issue to a special meeting, or established subcommittee for continued deliberation.

A Council member may request a ballot vote on any issue.

Online voting will be used when possible, to avoid delays. All votes completed online will require voting members to leave their e-mail address for verification.

10.5: Notice of Motion

Notice is a means of showing an intention to discuss and/or vote on something at a particular meeting. The advantage of this is that Council members and other interested community members become aware of the motion and have time to consider its implications.

Any Council member may submit a Notice of Motion for consideration at any meeting of the Council. Such Notice shall be delivered in writing to the chair at a Council meeting at least one month prior to the Council meeting at which the motion is to be considered. This ensures that the Notice can be delivered to all Council members (via the meeting minutes) and community members (via the school newsletter). The chair will add the motion in the agenda of the Council meeting at which it will be considered.

Notice is not mandatory and need not be given on every issue discussed and/or voted on by the Council. Rather, it is intended to ensure adequate input and attendance on important issues such as constitutional amendments and major funding decisions.

10.6: Communication

The Council shall announce its meetings in the school newsletter at least two weeks in advance of the meeting date.

The Council shall announce its meetings in the upcoming events in the school newsletter.

10.7: Agenda

Agenda items should be submitted to the chair at least 10 days prior to the next Council meeting. Agenda items must be submitted on the RIBS forms provided at the start of the year. RIBS forms are to be completed in full. RIBS forms will be provided by the chair to all council voting members with the agenda. The chair must set the agenda at least one week prior to the next meeting. The agenda is distributed to Council members and interested parents by e-mail no later than 3 days prior to the upcoming meeting. This encourages all those concerned to come to the meeting prepared for meaningful discussion. The Executive may consider additional items for the final agenda up to the day before the meeting. Attendees may not add agenda items at the meeting.

10.8: Structure

When necessary, the council will use Robert's Rule of Order.

Council meetings will adhere to the following structure:

- Welcome and introductions
- Principal's Report
- Treasurer's Report and acceptance by motion and vote
- New business items
- Subcommittee updates, including next meeting date and time
- Meeting adjourned

10.9: Minutes

The secretary will distribute the minutes by e-mail to all Council members within 14 days of the meeting. Interested attendees and parents will have access to the minutes via the Park Avenue Public School website. It is the principal's responsibility to post the minutes on the website. Minutes shall include attendance, a synopsis of discussions, motions, decisions and actions to be taken.

10.10: Conflict Resolution

The Council will undertake to resolve all internal conflicts within its mandate in a timely manner. The Council will abide by any conflict resolution policy issued by the Board.

Article 11: Financial Management

- All fundraising activities must be in accordance with the Board's School Fundraising and Administration of School Generated Funds policy and procedure
- All expenses should be school-related and at a reasonable cost.
- All non-budgeted items require Council approval.
- All cash receipts should be handled, collected, counted and totaled in the presence of at least two (2) Council members or volunteers from different families.
- As Per the Board's School Fundraising and Administration of School Generated Funds policy and procedure, the school is to have one school generated funds account through which all school generated funds flow, the allocation of said funds being under the responsibility of the Principal.
- Release of funds will occur based on the decisions of the council.
- All money must be collected by the end of the year.
- All funds raised by the Council shall be collected for the purpose of enhancing the educational experience of the students of Park Avenue Public School.
- The treasurer will present a written update of the financial record to the Council at each meeting.
- Results from all fundraising activities are to be shared with voting council members first and then shared with the community

Article 12: School Advisory Council Constitution

12.1: Review

The Council will review the constitution every year or as the need arises. The Council members will perform the review and present their proposed amendments to the Council for voting.

12.2: Amendments

Amendments to the constitution must be presented to the Council at least 30 days in advance at a regularly scheduled meeting.

Constitutional amendments need a 2/3 majority vote to be passed.

Article 13: Protection of School Council Members

The York Region District School Board holds liability insurance undertaken on behalf of all Councils and, as such, members of the Park Avenue Public School Council are not personally liable for decisions and activities undertaken in relation to the Council, with the exception of any willful, destructive or dishonest act or neglect, performed by a particular Council member for which that person will be held accountable.
