Indigenous History Month and Indigenous People’s Day

National Indigenous History month is a time to celebrate the diverse cultures of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit communities, as opposed to focusing on what has been done to them. The Canadian Government unanimously declared June as National Indigenous History Month in 2009 through a motion in the House of Commons. The month, which includes National Indigenous Peoples Day, is a perfect time to reflect upon the long relationship between the many different Indigenous peoples of Turtle Island and Canadians throughout history. For students and teachers, it is a good time to become better acquainted with the different First Peoples who share this land with us.

June 21 was declared National Indigenous Peoples Day in 1996 by then Governor General Romeo Leblanc. The day was chosen in consultation with some national organizations for Indigenous Peoples including the Assembly of First Nations and coincides with the summer solstice which is significant for some First Nations.

Indigenous Self-Identification

The York Region District School Board is committed to First Nation, Métis, and Inuit students' success. We continue to support Indigenous students and work to provide a curriculum that facilitates learning about contemporary and traditional First Nation, Métis, and Inuit cultures, histories and perspectives among all students. To continue supporting self-identified students, the First Nation, Métis, and Inuit Ancestry Self-Identification brochure was updated in 2022. Current students can self-identify by completing this form and submitting it to the principal.

Indigenous Peoples Month and Pride Month

YRDSB and Richmond Green Secondary School are proud to celebrate Indigenous People's Month and Pride Month during June.

June is Indigenous Peoples Month and an important opportunity to recognize, celebrate and learn about the rich history, heritage, resilience and diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples of Turtle Island.

Indigenous peoples have been on this land since time immemorial and have demonstrated resilience, wisdom and strength in the face of immeasurable adversity. Their deep connection to the land, unique cultures and traditions serve as a powerful reminder of the importance of preserving cultural heritage.

As we begin our celebration of PRIDE month, we want to acknowledge our 2SLGBTQIA+ students, staff and community members. This month is a special opportunity for us to celebrate and highlight all that makes you shine.
