Student of the Week:

Congratulations to Caleb Van Diepen-Wallace for being chosen as this week's "Student of the Week". Well done!

SDHS 7th Annual Holiday Dinner

Each year, the students and staff host a holiday dinner inviting all members of the community into our "home" to enjoy a complete festive meal. This year's holiday dinner is taking place on Thursday, December 22nd. The event will start immediately at 5:30 p.m. and will wrap up around 8:00 p.m. We are hoping to build on last year's total of 650 meals served! Our evening also includes a children's area, free books and a clothing pick-up centre where community members will have an opportunity to take some clothing home with them at the end of the night.

Our school's holiday dinner is a great opportunity to both thank our generous community partners and welcome members of our community who may not be fortunate enough to have a warm holiday dinner of their own.

This event is made possible by the great students and staff at SDHS including our resident chef and hospitality teacher George Christoforou. We also have a great number of community partners who assist with this event, specifically Bill's Turkey Farm in Queensville ON, who have graciously donated all the turkeys for the past 6 dinners!

If you do not have any plans on the evening of December 22, 2016, then plan on spending the evening with students and staff at SDHS enjoying a wonderful holiday meal. Bring your family and friends!

Community Dinner Clothing Drive

It's that time of year again Sutton. We are starting our clothing drive for the community dinner. We would love to get any clothing you can spare. Adults, children, indoor, and especially winter clothing. Items can be dropped off to Mr. Hagerman in 202 or Ms. Hawkins in room 123. We appreciate any help to gather clothes and let people know about it so this event can be utilized. Clothing can also be dropped off in the main office.
