The School Council is excited to announce a learning session on May 13 at 7 p.m. for school families by Breanna Chanelle Phillip.

Breanna is a registered social worker and psychotherapist of Grenadian descent. Through her social work, Breanna is dedicated to supporting individuals in owning, writing and rewriting their stories. She is determined to remind all that come in contact with her that their stories matter and their voices deserve to be heard.

To attend, RSVP with your number of guests:
