Dear Students and Families,

Re: Learning Material Return Process

Students and families may now arrange to safely return items that belong to the YRDSB (including textbooks, etc.) on February 1 and 2, 2021 between 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Students will enter through the main doors, return materials in the cafeteria, and exit through the cafeteria doors following signage. At this time, musical instruments do not need to be returned.

Please use teachassist to book an appointment. Mr. Zoratto has created a booking time slot for either Feb 1 or Feb 2, titled Semester 1 Textbook Return. Each student will sign up for a time slot, and will only be permitted entry during this pre-arranged date/time. Please note that arrangements for the distribution of textbooks and other learning materials for Semester 2 courses will be shared at a future time.

Safety protocols will be in place as you enter the school building, and will include:

- individuals must maintain physical distancing by staying two metres apart;
- wear a mask;
- use hand sanitizer as you enter and exit the building; (Anyone wearing gloves upon arrival will be asked to remove and discard them. Applying hand sanitizer to gloves is not considered an acceptable way of cleaning hands);
- use the designated entry/exit doors only;
- a self-screening must be conducted prior to entering the building;
- students must drop off items individually. (No additional family members will be allowed to enter the building);
- only the drop-off of learning materials is allowed at this time. Individuals are to leave the premises as soon as they have dropped off their learning materials;
- students will be directed to one central drop off area for returning items;
- there will be no access permitted to any other rooms or locations within the school (including washrooms and the main office).

Masks and gloves will not be provided. Anyone entering the building is expected to wear a personal face covering to reduce the spread of respiratory droplets to protect others. For more information about how to use face coverings properly, visit www.york.ca/covid19.

If you are not returning to a YRDSB school for Semester 2, you must also return all YRDSB technology (e.g., laptop, chromebook, etc.). All students are expected to return the following items which belong to the school:

- School library books
- Teacher classroom library books
- Classroom supplies
- Textbooks
- Anything else that is property of the YRDSB

Our ultimate goal is to provide a safe and supportive process to allow for the return of school property. We thank you for your cooperation as we facilitate a safe and organized process.

Sincerely,
Lisa Wargo
Principal

Let's Talk:

Addressing Mental Health in Canada

According to the Mental Health Commission, on any given week, more than 500,000 Canadians are unable to go to work due to mental health problems. In light of these sobering statistics, Let's Talk Day helps erase the stigma surrounding mental health and make it easier for people to get help.

Although mental illness is a topic that touches virtually every life, many people are reluctant to talk about it. Let's Talk Day promotes awareness and action with a strategy built on four pillars:

- Fighting the stigma
- Improving access to care
- Supporting world-class research
- Leading by example in workplace mental health

For 2021, Let's Talk Day is held on January 28, 2021, and adopts the theme of Mental Health: Every Action Helps.

In addition to bringing mental illness out of the shadows, the campaign funds mental health initiatives across Canada. For more information on resources to support your mental health, contact our Employee and Family Assistance Program, ComPsych® GuidanceResources, at the contact information below.

The Alliance of Educators for Black Students AFFIRMING #BLACKJOY STUDENT CAMPAIGN

The Alliance of Educators for Black Students (AEBS) continues in their affirmation of Black students through an #AffirmingBlackJoy Student campaign. Dismantling anti-Black racism means addressing the ideas, systems and practices that create limiting representation and expectations of Black students and their potential for success. Celebrating and affirming Black joy is the antithesis of anti-Black racism - "Joy is our resistance."

Please join us in changing the narrative. In recognition of Black History Month, AEBS is hosting an opportunity to highlight and honour the achievements of Black students at the York Region District School Board (YRDSB). By affirming Black students through such initiatives, you are contributing to building a positive anti-racist learning environment in the YRDSB.

How can you affirm Black students and foster a sense of belonging? You can nominate and recognize a student(s) through the Affirming #BlackJoy Student Campaign by:

- Highlighting students who are succeeding academically;
- Highlighting students who are pursuing their own adventures in coding, business, finance, athletics, entrepreneurship, etc.; and/or
- Highlighting and celebrating the advocacy of a Black student led group or initiative taking place in a YRDSB school.

Please submit nominations using our Submission Form.

STUDENT SELF-NOMINATION

If you are a YRDSB student and would like to nominate yourself, please do so by submitting a reflection in the format of a poem, song, video blog or alternative media file type answering the following question(s): "What does Black Joy mean to you? How are you choosing or affirming Black Joy this Black History Month and beyond?" Please keep submissions under 3 minutes.

CRITERIA

We are selecting students who embrace the following as part of their identity:

- Students who are racialized Black and/or self-identify as Black (including biracial or multiracial students);
- Students from Kindergarten to Grade 12 (K-12).

All nominations and submissions are due Friday, February 12, 2021 at 11:59 p.m. Please note that selected students under the age of 18 will need to have media consent and release form completed by a parent or guardian. Please see the nomination form for further details.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Jaymyi Lesmond at jaymyi.lesmond@yrdsb.ca
