Workshop to Celebrate Asian Heritage Month

A group of UHS students developed Kraftkits, which aimed to celebrate and honour Asian Heritage Month by providing educational and engaging activities centred around Asian culture. During the workshop, students gained an understanding and appreciation of different aspects of Asian culture, including art, history, and traditional toys through the crafting activities provided in the KraftKits, as well as from the artifacts brought by the Toronto Asian Art Museum (TAAM).

Unionville High School students had hands-on learning experiences through crafting and studying Asian artifacts, which provided them with a memorable experience through creating a personalized hand-crafted souvenir and an opportunity to reflect on the progression and diversity of Asian Heritage. Thank you to Ms. Chung, Mrs. Wong and Ms. He for supporting this student-led workshop.

Thank you to the Action, Chinese Canadians Together (ACCT) Foundation (acctfoundation.ca) for enabling this learning opportunity for Unionville students.
