

CHV2: How To Locate Laws Governing Specific Issues

From The Town of Markham Website (<http://bit.ly/10eWk1Z>): Municipal, or local government, is responsible for handling the affairs of the local area, and makes laws and provides services for its own municipality.

Services can include: fire emergency services; garbage collection; local roads and sidewalks; snow plowing; operation of libraries; maintenance of parks and recreation facilities; etc..

The link below provides links on a variety of bylaw in areas from animal waste to garbage.

<http://bit.ly/1qODV0U>

From the Government of Ontario e-laws site @ <http://www.e-laws.gov.on.ca/navigation?file=home>

Some frequently accessed laws include: Consumer Protection Act; Employment Standards Act; Family Law Act; Human Rights Code; Labour Relations Act; Occupational Health and Safety Act; Residential Tenancies Act; etc..

From the Government of Canada's Justice Laws website @ <http://laws.justice.gc.ca/eng/>

Some commonly accessed Justice Acts include: Access to Information Act; Elections Act; Canadian Labour Code; Criminal Code; Divorce Act; Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; Privacy Act; Youth Criminal Justice Act etc..

From the United Nations website @ <http://www.un.org/en/>

The UN is the largest intergovernmental governing body in the world. Since its creation in 1945, it has been actively involved in five main areas: Development; Human Rights; International Law; Peace & Security, and Humanitarian Affairs.

Their Global Issues page @ <http://www.un.org/en/globalissues/> links you to information on a variety of global issues such as: water; food supply; and the environment.