Student Personal Information Consent Form

Throughout the school year, the YRDSB or school may collect your child’s personal information to showcase and promote school or student activities, events, and achievements to the school community or members of the public. These school activities and events include but are not limited to athletic pursuits, sports teams, clubs or committees, art work, plays or performances, interviews, field trips, commencement, and assemblies.

The YRDSB or school may use the following public-facing communication platforms to showcase or promote these school or student activities, events, and achievements. Student personal information shared on these communication platforms can include your child’s full name, grade level, achievements or work products, interviews, photographs, and recorded audio or video.

Please indicate your consent by checking the appropriate box below. You can choose to withdraw your consent at any time during the school year by contacting the school office.

If you have questions regarding the school’s activities and events, please contact your school’s principal.

Communication Platform	I consent	I do not consent
